Dear Future Sponsor,

Founding Fatherz Inc. is a non-profit, community service organization that works to support youth through mentoring, tutoring, coaching, motivating, and social justice education. Our core focus is the youth and we strive to emphasize the importance of academic success, social and emotional development, personal responsibility, and team building.

Our motto is:

“Let’s Wake Up And Get Rid Of The Zzz. We Must Wake Up From Our Perpetual State Of Sleep”

FFZ mission is to provide positive adult role models who establish relationships and demonstrate care, both shown to improve academic and future outcomes for all youth. Our work has reached across the Philadelphia and South Jersey counties since 2011 and has been referred to as a life line for youth going through very difficult life challenges.

Founding Fatherz Inc. would like to invite you to partner with us by way of sponsorship or a donation.

All proceeds will enable our organization to fund “The Wakeup”, A Founding Fatherz Documentary Film

“The Wakeup” is a documentary film that helps raise the awareness on what it takes to be a good father.

This documentary, showcase prominent Fathers in Philadelphia and surrounding areas, which encourage all fathers to be “consistently” involved in their child’s life on an emotional, mental, and physical level. This documentary will include: Fran Dunphy Temple Men's Head Basketball Coach, Fox 29's Quincy Harris, Temple Hall of Fame inductee and former 76er Ollie Johnson, Heavy-Weight Boxing Champion Bryant Jennings, President of FDRC Bilal Qayyum, and President of Danny Rumph Classic Mike Morak.

We need your support, so please review the following sponsorship options and make your selection.
